Resolutions of Condolence.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBIA.

WHEREAS it has pleased the Supreme Commander of the Universe to remove from our midst Freddy D. Miller only beloved son of Comrade F. H. Miller, therefore be it

RESOLVED, that the members of Great Bend lodge No. 88, Knights of Columbia extend their fraternal sympathy to Comrade Miller and his family in their deep sorrows and bereavments, and it was further

RESOLVED, that these resolutions be spread upon the Records of the Lodge and a copy thereof forwarded to to our bereaved comrade, and to the City papers for publication.

A. H. SCHAEFFER.

MODERN WOODMEN.

INASMUCH, As the Ruler of the Universe has in His Supreme Majesty, called from our Eden to the Eden above, Fred D., the only son of our Esteemed Neighbor, F. H. Miller, the committee on behalf of Great Bend Camp 1649, M. W. A., desire to express their sincere grief of the departure of this friend, and be it

RESOLVED, That we deeply sympathize with bereaved family in their great sorrow, trusting that the good Shepherd may send the comforter to bind up the broken hearts, and to soothe the agony caused by the loss of their dear son and brother, one loved by all, of Christian character, a shining light, a bright example. Death is only a temporary separation from loved ones. Affection stands heart broken at the bedside, and points through falling tears to a better land with flowers beyond the tomb to the home where there shall come no parting.

RESOLVED, That the foregoing words of symphy and esteem be spread upon the minutes of this Camp and copies furnished to parents of deceased and to the newspapers of the city for publication.
